FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hands Across the Sea – Holiday concert by Rhode Island Wind Ensemble to benefit International Institute Rhode Island

The Rhode Island Wind Ensemble will perform their holiday concert, Hands Across the Sea, on Sunday, December 13, 2009 at 2PM at the McCulloch Center for the Arts, St. Andrews School, 63 Federal Road, Barrington, RI. Guest vocalist Soprano Melanie Colvin Mollo will perform.

Admission to the concert is a donation of any one of the following items: toiletries including toothpaste, toothbrushes, shampoo, soap, and deodorant, hats, mittens, scarves, gloves, long underwear, and socks, along with gift cards in any amount, small or large, to Ocean State Job Lot, Kmart, Wal-mart, or Payless. All items will benefit the clients of the Refugee Resettlement Program at International Institute Rhode Island.

International Institute Rhode Island

International Institute Rhode Island is an independent non-profit agency. Our mission is to enable all area residents, especially immigrants and refugees, to become self-reliant, invested participants in our communities, while fostering respect and understanding among all people.

The Rhode Island Wind Ensemble

The Rhode Island Wind Ensemble is a dynamic performing group of more than forty skilled professional and amateur musicians. All the members are volunteers: people with a wide age range, from all walks of life. The Rhode Island Wind Ensemble provides a forum for this diverse membership to perform and share their love of music with the community.
